Master Potter, Jim Reinert

Jim received an MFA in ceramics from Michigan State University. He currently works in Owosso, Michigan, as an active studio potter. In addition to serving as an instructor at the Lansing Potters' Guild and the Shiawassee Arts Center, Jim was involved for many years with the Lansing Community College ceramics and art programs. He was a founding member of the MI Guild of Artists and Artisans and maintains an active profile in its operation. The group produces one of the three Ann Arbor summer art fairs. He sells his pottery through art fairs and galleries across the country. Jim was recently an overall champion in the Western North Carolina Clay Olympics.
