MONDAYS

SHIAWASSEE ARTS CENTER

206 Curwood Castle Drive

1pm -2:30 pm - RSVP 989-723-8354

- October 1 - Autumn Monotype - with Artist/Instructor Jann Johnson Lardie of Perry. Jann is currently exhibiting her clay sculptures, paintings and a Monotype at the Shiawassee Arts Center. Water soluble blockprinting inks will be used with an acrylic printing plate and mono indicates one print will be pulled from the printing plate. Think small pumpkins, gourds and fall flowers as subject matter. Come early and view the exhibit in the gallery! Dress for mess!
- October 15 - Blue Bird of Happiness - Painting in Acrylic with Artist/Instructor, Rich Tesner, of Flushing. Rich is also a featured artist in the current exhibit at the Shiawassee Arts Center. Learn a few new acrylic painting techniques while celebrating the Blue Bird! Come early to view the exhibit in the gallery! (Photo of Rich's painting on cover)
- October 29 - Open Studio to finish a previous project or experiment with watercolor or acrylic on your own. There will be a studio instructor available, but not necessarily the instructor from your project day. When registering, mention what project you plan to work on. Angela Hamilton, Artist/Instructor

TUESDAYS

OWOSSO SENIOR CENTER

300 N Washington Street

10am - 11:30am - RSVP 989-723-8875

- October 9 - Chickadee with a Pumpkin Watercolor Painting - One of our favorites to paint, is the black capped Chickadee, a small, non-migratory, songbird. Linda Van Cise, Artist/Instructor
- October 23 - Pears in Acrylic - A single still life can dazzle and delight! Cézanne and Monet both painted pears in Paris! More lessons in color mixing! Karreen Bird, Artist/Instructor
